

UNSW Study Abroad

Application to Study Abroad at UNSW

Admission requirements

In order to be considered for admission, you ordinarily need to have completed two years or more of study at an accredited degree-granting institution of higher education prior to enrolment at UNSW. Exceptions will be made in special circumstances. Applicants are normally expected to have attained a minimum GPA of 3.0 (or equivalent), as determined by UNSW Study Abroad.

Application deadline

Applications should be submitted at least six weeks prior to the start of semester, but it is strongly recommended that applications be submitted earlier as places may be filled by this stage. Semester dates are published on the UNSW website at:

<https://my.unsw.edu.au/student/resources/AcademicCalendar.html>

Depending on which passport you carry, it may be necessary to allow up to six months for visa processing. More information is available at:

<http://www.immi.gov.au/students/student-visa-assessment-levels.htm>

How do I apply?

This application form needs to be completed in full and submitted with certified transcripts of your academic record. If your original documents are not in English, certified translations of your transcripts will also be required. If you have changed your name, you will also need to provide documentary evidence. There is no application fee.

Statement from your university/college

If you intend to transfer credits back to your degree, the university or college where you are studying now will need to approve your enrolment as a Study Abroad student at the University of New South Wales. Your International Study Advisor or equivalent officer will need to complete the Statement form on the last page of this application form, and send it to UNSW Study Abroad by mail or fax.

English language requirements

If your current studies are not taught solely in English, you will also need to meet the minimum English language requirements of the University. One of the following tests must be submitted as part of your application:

English Language Test	Minimum Requirement
IELTS	Academic test modules accepted only. An overall minimum score of 6.5 is required, with a minimum score of 6.0 in each of the four subtests.
TOEFL – Internet-based test	An overall minimum score of 90, with a minimum Writing score of 24.
TOEFL – Computer test	An overall minimum score of 233, with a minimum in the Essay rating of 5.0.
TOEFL – Paper test	Only accepted with Test of Written English (TWE). An overall minimum score of 577 with a minimum TWE of 5.0.
UNSW Institute of Languages University English Entry Course (UEEC)	The UEEC a 10-week intensive English language program. Minimum requirement is completion of the UEEC with a grade of C+ (grade point 7.0) and minimum score of 20 in the writing component.

How will I know if I have been accepted?

You will receive an email confirmation of the outcome of your application, no later than two weeks after your application has been received by UNSW Study Abroad. Please note that because UNSW Study Abroad will contact you primarily by email, you should nominate an email address that you check regularly, and print your email address on the application form clearly.

Successful applicants will receive a letter of offer and a request to pay a deposit or a full semester's fee to UNSW Study Abroad within four weeks.

What happens next?

When UNSW Study Abroad has received your signed acceptance of the offer agreeing to the terms and conditions, a Confirmation of Enrolment (COE) will be sent, together with information about obtaining a student visa and other pre-departure information. You will need the COE in order to apply for your student visa.

Application Item Checklist – supporting documents:

- Certified academic transcripts (required for all applications)
- Completed Statement form (the last page of this application form) from your home university or college, if you require academic transfer credit to be transferred back to your degree
- Certified English translation, if your original transcripts are not issued in English
- English language test result, if your native language is not English, or if your current or previous tertiary studies are or were not taught solely in English. Please review the chart above for accepted tests.
- Documentary evidence if you have changed your name, eg marriage certificate
- If you have any disabilities or medical condition, a letter outlining support requirements
- If there are any special circumstances affecting your application, include a written statement and any supporting documentation.
